RE: Hearing Officer Workshop Training

Dear LHC Members,

The Louisiana Housing Council of NAHRO Professional Development Committee is now offering the Hearing Officer Workshop Training with a Certification Exam at the closing of the seminar. This will be held at the Rayne Civic Center - Mural Room 110 Frog Festival Drive Rayne, La. 70578 beginning Tuesday, November 5, 2019 and continue through Wednesday, November 6, 2019.

Ms. Georgia Karageorge is an attorney licensed in Illinois, the District of Columbia, and the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois. Her primary areas of expertise and interest are affordable housing, politics, government, and public policy. Ms. Karageorge has proficiency in the areas of housing law, policy, and HUD regulations and over seven years of experience serving as an attorney representing the third largest PHA in the United States in formal and informal administrative hearings, as well as in the Circuit Court of Cook County and the Illinois Appellate Court. She is a Senior Consultant at Nan McKay & Associates, Inc. Ms. Karageorge assists PHAs with development of key policy documents such as administrative plans, admissions and occupancy policies, and tenant selection plans; collects and analyzes data and effectively communicates findings to client in verbal and written form; assists PHAs with strategic planning goals including five-year plans and Rental Assistance Demonstration conversions; collaborates with project team members to share and further develop offerings in the subsidized housing industry.
